THE OTHER SIDE.

PERRYSBURG, Aug. 18, 1881. ED. JOURNAL - Dear Sir: - In your paper of last week I see an article from the en of the virtuous Dr. Albert, claiming that I offered to settle with him for $5.00 and withdraw all charges of wilfully breaking my arm. Now let me say that I never offered to do any such thing. He has wilfully lied. He may be able to satisfy poor unfortunate girls with money, after he has robbed them of virtue an honor, but in my case I propose to let the law of the land settle with him for the injury done me. Respectfully, Timothy Connurs.

Attention, Farmers!

Mn. Entron :-Please let me say through your paper, to the farmers of Wood county, that the Ohio Farmers Insurance Co. does We are receiving a complete line of fine carry the risk caused by the use of Steam Dress Goods, Laces, Embroidery, Hosiery, Threshers, and without extra charge, or stipulations, the reports of several travelstipulations, the reports observed traveling insurance agents to the contrary not-withstanding. As a proof of this state-ment, I will say, that the company paid for losses caused by steam threshers, in the last year, over fifteen thousand dollars. Farmers, don't believe their reports.

who taught us the prayer, "Lead us not into temptation," demands it. None will feel the lash but those who deserve it. To them our heart goes out. It is for their good, in part, we write, in the hope that as an instrument for good it may reach their hearts, that they and the world may be benefitted thereby.

Since writing the above, a good brother, a temperance man, pastor of one of the Atlanta churches, said: "The only cause for which we have to discipline any of our members, is on account of strong drink. We have now some thirteen cases whom we would save from the curse if we could." Still the work of the devil goes on. Christian men will sid by their votes the rum traffic. Deacons and ministers wink at it while scores of their fellowmen are going down to rain. It is left now to the temp erance workers to put down the desiroyer and thanks be to the living God, their ef forts are being blessed, and the rum fiend is trembling in his strong hold. The Chris tian women, the Good Templars, the Kuights of Jericho, the Sons of Temper ance, are all doing their part, and the work goes bravely on.—Exchange.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilia, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the lodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safeat, and most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases. Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Sait Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercuriat Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundlee, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give Ayza's Sassapanuala a fair trial.
